Happy New Year to Everyone...

Looking forward to carrying on the good work that we did last year. We are all working hard now organising the village Fair. This year we are trying to drag it into the 21st century! We are aiming to invite extra attractions to the Fair and make it more of a musical event this year.

It is our intention to introduce a couple of additional fund raising opportunities in 2015.

The future is looking good with everything in place for the next 3 years.

The Editor Revealed...

I have been asked for a while now for a photo of myself to appear in an issue, so that you are all aware of who your bulletin editor is. I am not a very photogenic person so as a compromise I have included some pictures in this issue of my two little rascals that have been keeping me busy these last couple of months. The latest addition is Oliver and his older brother or 'partner in crime' as we like to refer to him is Jacob. For those of you who aren't too keen on children, I've included a cute dog picture instead.

Rotary Books

I am writing to thank Club Members for their ongoing support in providing me with books during the past year.

In the course of the 2014 calendar year we received a total of £617.95 from our various outlets. This takes our total since the fund was set up in 2005 of well in excess of £10,000.

Last year we lost our most lucrative source and another one was considerably reduced. These losses were partly compensated for by a new site at The Golden Coast (Jenny and Michael Zeale kindly provided me with a book case). I shall continue to look for suitable locations for our books but, for all sorts of reasons, camp sites and hotels are reluctant to oblige.

I would be most grateful if you would continue to maintain the supply of books during 2015 (in particular paperback are a popular holiday read).
